

Waiting for WINDOWS to BOOT (5/4)

R. J. Marks II

Clarinet

I washed the car and scrubbed the tires, rolled

Cl

back the o - do-me -ter too

I checked the coil and changed the oil WAI-

Cl

TING FOR WIN-DOWS To BOOT.

Then I brushed my teeth where

Cl

I could reach and bleached my fav-orite tooth

I swabbed my ear drums and

Cl

flossed my gums WAI- TING FOR WIN-DOWS to BOOT.

Cl

(WAI- TING FOR WIN-DOWS TO BOOT)

WIN DOWS did boot I
[A] quar - ter bil-lion

Cl

can com-pute but like a re - cur-ring di - sease WIN-DOWS us - ers at mi-nute each day per boot

I typed six pa-ges and
- Comes to o-ver a

Cl

felt the rage as WIN-DOWS de-ci-ded to freeze So I wormed the dogs and thou-sand years - plus a cen-tury or two, A thou-sand years each

Cl

slopped the hogs and stringed a bowl of beans. I checked my P. C. sad-day I fear, no mat-ter your world view. Is too much time to denned to see thst WIN-DOWS had blue screened.

Cl

 stand in line wai-ting for WIN-DOWS to boot.

Cl

(WIN-DOWS had blue screened) A (WAI-TING FOR WIN-DOWS TO BOOT) Com-pu-ters are best at pla - ying chess but they are no match for me I'm bet-ter out - fo-xing P.

Cl

Cl

C.s in kick bo-xing down the stairs in-to the street When bud-get per-mits I'll get Li-nex a Mac or an i-Pad will do. I hum-bly pur-port that

Cl

Cl

F#m G A A⁷ D A D Em 3

life is too short WAI- TING FOR WIN-DOWS TO BOOT

Cl

F#m G A A⁷ D A D >

(WAI- TING FOR WIN--DOWS TO BOOT)